Your Question

Priya, the question you asked is not really one question. It is two. Whether to leave consulting and start a sustainable architecture studio, and when to make the formal break. The chart settles the first question quickly. The second one deserves the careful answer.

Eleven years in management consulting has not been a detour. It has been the apprenticeship the chart designed for you, and the period that carried that apprenticeship is now in its closing chapter. Your chart does not show someone leaving a job. It shows someone who has been preparing, in plain sight, to step into the work she was always meant to do.

The reading that follows tells you what the chart shows about your entrepreneurial wiring, the timing window opening now, the patterns you will carry into the new venture, and what the next decade asks of you. The answer is direct. The path is clear. The work is preparing for it consciously.

Your Chart at a Glance

The sky at the moment of your birth on 22 August 1989, at 2:35 PM in Mumbai, gave you a Scorpio ascendant in the star of Jyeshtha, an Aries Moon in Bharani, and a Leo Sun. Below are the placements that matter most for the question you asked.

CHART ESSENTIALS

ASCENDANT	Scorpio, with Jyeshtha rising — ruled by Mars
MOON	In Aries, 6th house, in Bharani — the star of creative intensity
SUN	In Leo, 10th house, in Magha, in its own sign and at full strength
SOUL PLANET	Mars — placed in the 10th house in Leo, conjunct the Sun
CAREER PLANET	The Moon — emotionally driven work, public-facing
CURRENT PERIOD	PLANETARY Mars, running 2020 to 2027 — with the Sun as the active sub-period
KARMIC WEATHER CYCLE	Gemini period, running 2020 through 2029
KEY CONJUNCTIONS	Sun, Mars, and Ketu together in the 10th house · Mercury and Venus together in the 11th
SADE SATI	Active — the seven-and-a-half year Saturn testing period, ending 2 June 2027

Three things stand out before any analysis. First, your Mars rules the ascendant and sits in the 10th house of public career, alongside the Sun. Second, your soul planet is that same Mars. Third, you are in the Mars period of life. When the planet that rules your chart, carries your soul karma, and runs your current life chapter is the same planet, the chart speaks with one voice. That voice is decisive. It is also the planet of independent action. Mars does not borrow careers. Mars builds them.

The Entrepreneurial Wiring

The question of whether you should be an employee or your own principal does not require a long meditation. The chart fires twenty-two career indicators on this question alone. Several of them converge on the same finding.

Mars, the Sun, and Ketu in the 10th

Your 10th house, the house of public career and what the world will remember you for, holds three planets in conjunction. The Sun gives your career a face that cannot stay anonymous. Mars gives the execution capacity to push projects through resistance. Ketu, the third planet in this cluster, dissolves attachment to conventional career hierarchy. Where the chart of a comfortable employee usually shows Saturn anchoring the 10th, your 10th has none of that. There is no thread in your chart that binds you to corporate hierarchy for life.

A Strong King-Maker Combination

The Sun, ruler of your 10th house, sits with Mars, ruler of your ascendant. This is a classical king-maker combination, and yours is the strong version. Among the rules used to identify high-status career outcomes, this single placement is one of the cleanest indicators a chart can carry. You are wired to lead, to build, and to be visible while you do it. The recognition you have earned in consulting over the past five years is this combination already delivering. Your task is to put it to work where the credit returns to you instead of to the firm.

Bharani Moon — The Star of Creation from the Formless

Your Moon sits in Bharani, classically the star of creation, fertility, and the threshold between worlds. The career professions associated with Bharani Moon are exactly the ones where one shapes form from the formless. Design, architecture, dance, music. Sustainable architecture, the work of designing how humans live on the earth without destroying it, sits cleanly inside this Bharani vocation. This is not a coincidence. It is your emotional core showing you the shape of the work you are meant to do.

04 | SECTION

The Timing Window

You are now in the closing chapter of the seven-year Mars period that began on 24 January 2020 and concludes on 24 January 2027. Inside that period, you are in the Sun sub-period, which runs through approximately mid-2026. This sub-period activates your strongest king-maker combination directly, and it is the brightest visibility window the Mars period offers.

This is the founding window. When the planet that runs your chart period, the planet that rules your ascendant, and the planet that signifies your soul karma all activate simultaneously, the chart is at its most concentrated capacity for self-directed action. A founder's first year is rarely launched in a calm sky. It is launched in the window when the chart has the most agency to give. That window is now.

The Sequence the Chart Endorses

The Sun sub-period continues through approximately mid-2026. Use this window to make the formal break. Register the studio. Announce the new direction. Sign three to five small projects in parallel rather than one large one — Mars rewards multiple fronts of action over a single concentrated bet.

After the Sun sub-period comes the Moon sub-period, beneficial for deepening client relationships but quieter for foundational decisions. Use that period to consolidate what the Sun period launched.

On 24 January 2027 your seven-year Mars chapter closes and an eighteen-year Rahu chapter begins. Rahu is the period of unconventional, technology-amplified, internationally-distributed work. For a sustainable architecture studio, Rahu is unexpectedly favourable. The studio you start in 2026 will scale during Rahu, not shrink.

What You Will Carry With You

An honest reading does not sell you only the bright side. Three patterns in your chart will travel with you into this new venture. Naming them now means they cannot ambush you later.

Sade Sati Is Active

Saturn is currently transiting Pisces, the sign before your natal Moon in Aries. This is the closing arc of your Sade Sati, the seven-and-a-half year Saturn testing period that surrounds the natal Moon. It ends when Saturn moves into Aries on 2 June 2027.

Sade Sati during a major transition has a recognisable behaviour. It does not block the new venture. It tests every assumption. Cash flow runs more uneven than expected. Early clients require more proof of credibility than you anticipated. Sleep becomes harder to protect. The path the chart approves is still the path Saturn will examine. Build slack into the timeline, both financial and emotional, for the first eighteen months. The pressure ends in June 2027.

Honour the Body

Two of your planets sit at sensitive degrees the classical texts treat as health-vigilance markers. Combined with Sade Sati and the Mars period, the chart asks for active attention to the body during the founding period. Founders are tempted to push through. Your chart specifically asks you not to. Build in regular sleep, regular meals, and a non-negotiable hour of physical movement every day. Bharani Moon also asks you to protect the eyes during long design work. Migraine or vision strain is a signal to rest, not a thing to push through.

Hold the Work Without Grasping the Credit

Ketu sits with the Sun and Mars in your 10th house. The same configuration that gives you the entrepreneurial wiring also concentrates ego, ambition, and identity in your career. Ketu's function in this position is to dissolve attachment to that identity. As the studio grows, you will face moments where the work asks you to release credit, share authorship, or watch a project you led be reshaped by collaborators. The Ketu in your 10th is not making your career smaller. It is asking you to hold it without grasping. The founders who learn this earliest are the ones who build studios that outlast them.

06 | SECTION

The Practical Sequence

Now Through Mid-2026 — The Sun Sub-Period

This is the formal launch window. Register the studio. Announce the new direction publicly. Take three to five small projects in parallel. Use this window to establish credibility, not to scale. The Sun sub-period gives visibility but not endurance — endurance comes in the years that follow.

Keep One Foot In Until the Third Client Signs

The chart approves the leap. It does not endorse recklessness. Mars in the 10th is decisive, and it also runs hot. The pragmatic recommendation is to keep some consulting work, even at half time, until the studio has signed its third paying client. That is the threshold at which Mars feels validated and the engine of self-employment becomes self-sustaining.

June 2027 — Sade Sati Ends

When Saturn enters Aries on 2 June 2027, the testing period lifts. Cash flow steadies. Client conversations become easier. The recognition you have been building quietly during Sade Sati surfaces publicly. This is the moment the studio is no longer the brave bet. It is the obvious destination.

January 2027 — A New Eighteen-Year Chapter

Your seven-year Mars chapter closes on 24 January 2027 and an eighteen-year Rahu chapter begins. Rahu specialises in unconventional, foreign-influenced, technology-amplified, boundary-pushing work. The unconventional studio you start during the Mars window will not shrink under Rahu. It will scale.

Honour the Ancestral Layer

Your Sun and Mars sit in Magha, the first star of Leo, classically ruled by the ancestors. The career success in your chart is not separate from your ancestral karma. It is one of the channels through which it flows. An annual ancestor-remembrance practice during the dark fortnight before Navratri is one of the protective patterns associated with this placement. For your chart specifically, this is not generic ritual. It is part of the maintenance.

07 | SECTION

In Closing

Priya, your chart does not tell you to leap. It tells you that you have been climbing, in stages, toward this very edge for eleven years. The edge is real. The next ground is solid. The Mars Mahadasha is the period the chart designed for the founding work. The Sun sub-period is the brightest hour inside it. Sade Sati will examine your assumptions, but it will not block the path.

The yogas, the planetary placements, the sub-periods, the empirical rule fire-pattern, and the divisional charts used for career analysis all converge on the same answer. Build the studio. Build it in stages. Honour the body. Honour the ancestors. Hold the work without grasping the credit.

May Maa Kali grant the courage to begin. May Maa Saraswati grant the discernment to design. May Maa Lakshmi grant the abundance to sustain.

METHODOLOGY

How This Reading Was Prepared

This consultation was computed by the Cosmic Nexus intelligence platform, which applies empirically validated Vedic astrology rules against a birth chart calculated with the Swiss Ephemeris using the Lahiri ayanamsa and Whole-Sign house system. The platform cross-references four independent timing systems, Vimshottari, Yogini, Chara, and Kaal Chakra dasahas, against divisional charts (D9 Navamsha, D10 Dashamsha, D30 Trishamsha), Jaimini Charakarakas, Shadbala planetary strength, and Ashtakavarga transits. Predictions are drawn from a knowledge base of more than seven hundred classical and Nadi rules, each weighted by empirical validation against a reference library of seventy-nine thousand charts.

The interpretation honours the three pillars that guide every Cosmic Nexus reading. First, read the chart honestly. Second, help the reader accept the patterns shown. Third, help the reader navigate what is ahead. Nothing here is designed to alarm or fatalistically decide your path for you.

IMPORTANT NOTE

Vedic astrology is a decision-support system, not a substitute for qualified medical, legal, or financial advice. Timing windows noted in this reading are karmic probability windows, not guarantees. Free will and effort remain primary. Where the reading indicates a difficult period, remedies and conscious action can soften the weight. Where the reading indicates a favourable period, preparation and timing choices determine how fully the opportunity is received.
